Restaging a Garden Party:
Sharing Social Histories Through Interactive Designs

Auckland
Wellington
Christchurch
Dunedin

“Design thinking is a human-centered approach to innovation that draws from the designer's toolkit to integrate the needs of people, the possibilities of technology, and the requirements for business success.”
—Tim Brown, president and CEO, IDEO

Freedom
The sense of ‘being’ without unwanted constraints

Harmony
The balanced and pleasing relationship of parts to a whole

On Thursday evening Mr and Mrs Theomin gave a large dinner party at their beautiful home, "Olveston," 18 being present. The table was most beautifully decorated with exquisite Bohemian glass, vases, bon-bon dishes, and menu-holders, all to match, whilst the lights were softly shaded with lovely green shades, matching in tone and hue the colour of the glass.

Excerpt from The Otago Witness - “Table Talk”, 1907

●●●●● 2degrees 3G 12:22 pm
Junaio
Scan

●●●●○ 2degrees 3G 12:11 pm
Junaio
Scan

OLVESTON
HISTORIC HOME
PLAY
TOY HUNT

